

Employer Expo 2004

By Shannon Oickle, Staff Training Officer, Springhill Institution

Correctional Service of Canada (CSC) staff participated in an Employer Expo sponsored by the Nova Scotia Community College, Cumberland Campus, in Springhill. Approximately 300 people attended including students from the college and two local high schools. The event showcased employers and companies that promote the importance of employment readiness for students. The event included a keynote speaker, information booths and panel workshops. ■
